

Dear Denise,

Often when we ask you to support the Kalamazoo College Fund we reference the life-changing potential of the K-Plan's most salient elements: rigorous academics, experiential learning, study abroad and the Senior Individualized Project. But it is the interaction of these various elements—the push and pull they exert on each other—that provides and prepares students for epiphanies. Mary Corcoran '11 had such an epiphany during her senior spring. Learn more about how K helped Mary find her calling and career as an independent writer, researcher and archivist. Your support will enhance K's ability to prepare current students for callings and careers. Please consider making your gift today in support of The K Experience.
